Chamber of Commerce Declines to Aid Promoters; Dollar Dinner Friday.

A proposition to establish a moving picture studio and distributing corpora-tion in El Faso was put up to the direc-tors of the chamber of commerce Mon-day morning at a meeting of the direc-tors at Hotel Sheldon, E. E. Blackwell and E. M. Sanford, armed with a two year contract for five-reel photo plays, outlined their plan to set up a scenario and picture play plant here.

The chamber was asked to guarantee at least $12,000 for investment in the new proposition, which might be made a $75,000 corporation.

Turn Down Offer.
The directors dicided that there was no fund available for supplying $12,000 for such purpose, and that it was not the province of the chamber to enlist
